PHIL FINCH BREAKS DOWN.

CAPTAIN WILLIAMS' GOOD HORSE NOT EXPECTED TO RACE AGAIN.

Four Favorites Win-Garner Rides Three of Them-Lens Is Defeated-Belle of the Bay's Victory.

New Orleans, La., January 18 .- An incident that was exceedingly pathetic to the majority of local patrons of racing occurred at City Park today when Phil Finch, the most popular horse to race here since the days of McChesney, broke down hopelessly in the fourth race. Because of the public's general liking for Captain Williams' good handicap horse, Phil Finch was heavily backed for his effort against Glorifier and Orbicular. Rounding the first turn he faltered and jockey Lowe pulled him up and dismounted. He had broken down in the left hind leg and, although he was able to limp away to his stable, those best able to judge are of the belief that it will be impossible for him to race again.

With Phil Finch out of the way the race was little more than an exercise gallop for Glorifier. Garner had waiting orders for him and so had Austin with Orbicular. As a result the two fairly crawled along for the first seven furlongs, indulged in a short sprint into the stretch and Glorifier cantered to the finsh an easy winner in 1:55, the slowest race of the season over a fast track. Austin obeyed instructions in keeping Orbicular away from pacemaking, but his ride was as idiotic as the order

Four favorites won and Garner rode three of them His winning mounts besides Glorifier were Miss Leeds in the first and Emergency in the second. Both appeared to stand out over their opponents and both won just as easily as the public predicted they would. Lens, too, seemed to be in an easy race in the third, but the best he could do was to finish second to Rickey. He got to the front in the stretch after wearing down Penrhyn, but the effect to reach that position took so much out of him that he had nothing left when Rickey came up with closing challenge.

Belle of the Bay's victory in the fifth race was the most sensational of the day. Capitally ridden by Swain, she came from behind in the stretch and in a driving finish managed to Last long enough to win by a nose from Tichimingo and Odd Trick, both of which would have beaten her in another stride. Dr. McCluer followed the fast pace in the sixth race and won by a narraw margin after getting up to Devout. Goldproof led all the way in the Robert Tucker will go to Memphis shortly to take up the horses he will campaign during the coming season in the east and is weeding out the string he is racing here. Yesterday he sold to A. He mell the useful plater Wes for a reported price Yesterday he sold to A. Ham Report the userin place was not a reported place of the S2,500. Hammell is said to be acting for a Mr. Brulatour, whose father is manager of the French Opera House here. "Tex" Forman bought Plaud's running qualities from Tucker.

Barney Cunningham wired Secretary Nathanson that he will arrive at the Fair Grounds Monday with his stable. Three two-year-olds, the property of James Griffin will come down in the same car. These horses have been wintering at Montgomery Park.

Babe B. was cut down in her race and pulled up lame.

Jockey Englander was suspended for six days by the judges for rough riding in the fifth race. With Bouviac, he repeatedly fouled Prince Brutus, and this in a measure, was responsible for his

T. L. WATT'S TWELVE TWO-YEAR-OLDS

Filly by Gone Coon-Hurtle Is One of the Grandest Lookers at Gravesend

New York, January 18 .- T. L. Watt, the Harlem banker, who has raced a small stable with considerable success for several years has twelve juvenile in winter quarters at Gravesend. For several years Mr. Watt has bought rather liberally of Douglas Grand's annual consignments of yearlings from England, and in this manner he secured last season' Twin City Handicap winner, Fine Cloth, Don Royal and other winners.

While youngsters of English breeding are represented in the coming season's stable, Mr. rather the stable manager, Charles H. Flack, bought more generally of the native-bred yearlings offered for sale last summer. That he was a discriminating is demonstrated by a look over the horses in the stable. Almost without exception they show size and quality and will compare favorably with any stable on Long Island.

One of the foreign-bred youngsters is a big, fine racy-looking bay colt by Father Confessor, out of Koffee, by Strathmore. This colt is a full brother to Confessor, for which J. L. Holland paid only $200 as a yearling in October, 1903. He is a well-muscled with good depth through the girth, a back which denotes ability to carry weight and well-turned quarters. Nothing is known of his speed as yet, but he looks the part and should race with credit when asked the ques stion. Mr. Watt bought him privately from Mr. Grand last October.

A likely looking chestnut colt by Ramapo—Mag-ina resembles his sire very much. He has a good bead and neck, strong quarters and with his hind legs well under him, he has the cut of a good horse.

A cleanly made colt is the imported son of Orion-Columbian (own sister to Darleydale, winner of the

CONDENSED HISTORY OF THE LISSAK HANDICAP.

Being a mile dash, the Lissak Handicap is popular with owners. First run as a dash of two miles, it was changed to a six fuelong sprint for three-year-olds and in 1900 was made a handicap at its present distance. In its first running under its present conditions Bannockburn won in a grand performance and set a track record that stood until Bearcatcher eclinsed it in 1905. Good horses have contested it annually and to Elliott has fallen the honor of winning it twice, once for W. B. Jennings and again for M. J. Daly. The record of the race is as follows:

Eclipse Stakes), by St. Simon. Mr. Watt bought this fellow also from Mr. Grand at private sale. He stands about fifteen hands three inches and is well put together all over. He is built for speed, and all in all there are few flaws that could be picked in him.

One of Mr. Watt's own breeding is a chestnut colt by Belmar-Warley. He has size and conformation of the best type to recommend him, and looks like coming to hand early.

A taking looking youngster is the chestnut gelding Star Xallapa, by Star Shoot-Xallapa, with a wellshaped head and neck, immense shoulders, broad back and quarters that would fit a four-year-old, he looks every inch a racehorse. He is highly regarded by the stable, though his price as a yearling was Pink and Blue, after Mr. Watt's racing colors is the name of the brown filly by Kingston, out of Cap and Bells, the only American bred filly to win the English Oaks. This filly is rather small but is built on good racing lines and shows much Mr. Watt paid $800 for her as a yearling.

One of the best looking fillies seen in is the chestnut by Gone Coon, out of Hurtle. Gone Coon is a Galopin stallion which was brought over from England in 1904, he having covered the young mare Hurtle, by The Rush, before his departure. This filly was foaled in 1905 and was brought over last October by Mr. Grand and sold privately to Mr. Watt. Gone Coon has yet to make a reputation in this country, but if there is anything in looks, this filly should bring him into notice. There are few essential points lacking in her conformation, and she is almost sure to race well if nothing happens to She reminds one very much of Whimsical when she was a two-year-old and Mr. Flack will be well pleased if she but races as well.

A fine filly with size and quality to recommend is the home-bred miss by Warrenton, out of Prudence, the dam of Lady Uncas. This filly shows some fine racing points, but hardly compares with the Gone Coon filly.

Another smart looking miss is the full sister to Merry Lark, by Jim Gore—Twitter. She stands about fifteen hands one inch, has good head and shoulders, fine middle piece and good quarters. Although she is lacking in height, she makes up for it in quality. She is what would be called a big little

A brown filly by Galore-Branch and a half sister to Sandalwood, shows size and quality, and ought to come to hand early.

The bay filly by Ben Strome—Daisy Rose, is a half sister to McMeekin. She has much to recommend her in makeup and is, in fact, an extra appearing filly and one that should give a good account of herself when thoroughly wound up. Mr. Watt paid $950 for her and he has named her Rose of Ben Strome filly by Gal built on the light order, but shows many good points. She should come to hand for the early meetings. Billy Garth bought her for $500 and later trans ferred her to Mr. Watt.

The older horses in the stable are all in good winter condition. Fine Cloth looks exceptionally good and may be a factor in some of the season's big events. The list includes Sir William Johnson, Don Royal, Consistent, Moonshine, Ludy Warrenton, by Warrenton-Lady Prudence, Gitche Manito, by Bel-mar-Maid of Harlem. The two last named are three-year-olds which did not race last year.

SAIN NINTH IN THE SIRE LIST.

For the first time since Barney Schreiber embarked in breeding one of his stallions has achieved the distinction of a place in the list of the first ten American sires, that honor falling to his favorite This exquisitely bred horse was brought to this country when a foal along with his dam Task. His sire, St. Serf, is a son of St. Simon, so Sain is a representative of the popular and win line descended from Galopin. The Task is by the unbeaten horse Barcaldine, from Satchel, by Galopin, so there is a suspicion of inbreeding close up in Sain's pedigree. He is a brown and was foaled in 1894 and imported in 1895 by Marcus Daly, in whose name he began racing in 1896. His first start was in a half mile dash for two-yearolds at Anaconda, Montana, July 1, in which ran second to the fast May W. in :401. July 17, May W. beat him again at five furlongs in 1:02 This was also at Anaconda. At Butte, July 22, he won at a half mile in :483 from Paul Jones, Shot Silk, Pat Morrissey and others. Then he ran second in each of four consecutive races and wound up his career as a two-year-old by winning at three-quarters from Bill Howard, Gold Bug and two more, in 1:153, over a slow track.

He was then taken to San Francisco and early in the following year was given a short but strenuous campaign in which he proved himself a good racehorse, especially in heavy going. His first start was at Ingleside, January 7, and he was unplaced to Sport McAllister, Arapahoe and Sly at three quarters. Santa Bella, dam of the Futurity winner Ormondale, was another of the unplaced ones. His next essay was at Oakland, January 11, where he ran third to the good horses Osric and Arrezzo at seven furlongs, in 1:281. Then he was three times unplaced in good company. January 28, he im proved by running second to Suisun at seven furlongs over a very heavy track, and two days later won at a mile from St. Aignon, Monita and six others in 1:45½; track heavy. St. Algnon was an even money favorite. February 2, in a mile and a quarter dash for three-year-olds, he easily defeated the cracks-Greyhurst and Lincoln II.-by a length and a half in deep mud, in 2:134. Greyhurst was a 10 to 7 favorite and it was 9 to 5 Lincoln II., and 15 to 1 Sain. February 6, he ran second to Geyser at a mile. A week later he was third to Ostler Joe and The Bachelor in a mile and a quarter dash and ran his last race February 19, when he finished second to Arrezzo in a seven furlongs dash. That closed his racing career and Barney Schreiber bought him for a moderate sum and sent him to Woodlands

Up to that time the Australian-bred Foul Shot was the premier at Woodlands, and was the sire of some good performers, but with the advent of his first crop of two-year-olds Sain displaced him and has more than amply vindicated the good judgment displayed in securing him for stud service. Still a young horse, he has already sent such stars to the races as Otis, Corrigan, Schwalbe, Geheimniss, Lacy Crawford, Nealon, Otto Stifel, Deutsch-land, Angleta, Pinkerton, Tom McGrath, Ida Kearney, Ed Sheridan, Baggerly, Tony Faust, Jack Atkin and Ziri, everyone stake winners and racers of marked excellence. These do not cover the names of all his winning progeny by any means. The Sains are hardy customers and almost without exception inherit his ability to run well in deep going as well as to show great speed on fast tracks. In 1906 his sons and daughters contributed to his winning record as a sire as follows:

CHANLER BUYS OLYMPIAN.

New Orleans, La., January 18 .- Acting for William Astor Chanler, George Galvin has purchased from John F. Schorr the nine-year-old stallion Olympian, by Domino-Belle of Maywood. No soone was the sale consummated than Mr. Schorr received offers from a half dozen breeders for this good horse and Mr. Chanler is considered to have secured a bargain in the horse for which he paid $1,200.

MADDEN BUYS BROTHER TO METEOR.

Paris, Ky., January 18.—John E. Madden has purchased from Catesby Woodford the two-year-old chestnut colt by Star Shoot—The Niece, by Alarm. This colt is a full brother to Meteor and a half brother to La Colonia, dam of Lady Amelia. Niece was twenty-three years old when she foaled

MILLER FIRST FOUR TIMES.

ALL FAVORITES AND EASY VICTORIES SAVE THAT ON ST. ELMWOOD.

Spreckels Backs His Colt Heavily - Mc. Cafferty Gets Van Ness-Hector Fouls Collector Jessup and Is Set Back.

Oakland, Cal., January 18 .- Walter Miller rode four winners today, again monopolizing the attention of the racegoers. He had no mount in the first race, but brought Lazell, Lucian and Nealon home in the next three, finished third on Hersain and scored a head victory on St. Elmwood. The winners he rode were all favorites, all save Lucian going to the post odds-on Rudolph Spreckels was present to see his colt St. Elmwood score under conditions that in the early stages presaged defeat. The gratified owner wagered heavily on the California bred youngster at odds averaging less than 7 to 10. Owing to heavy backing of Blondy the price receded at the close. Nealon won the feature race easily. He strode by his opponents when called on as if they were an-chored. McIntyre, rider of Hector in this race was guilty of foul riding in the stretch and Hector was set back behind the impeded horse, Collector Jessup.

C. C. McCafferty sprung one of his surprises with Nonie Lucille in the fifth, taking the measure of Van Ness on which Hildreth and his connections started a plunge of huge proportions. R. R. Rice claimed Van Ness for $825 and subsequently resold him to C. C. McCafferty at a profit of $200.

Jockey Graham is laid up with a bad cold. It was rumored at first that his absence from the saddle yesterday was due to a temporary shelving by the stewards while an investigation was in progress into the running of Alma Boy in the fifth race, January 16. Jockey Sandy is still incapacitated from riding, the result of his recent fall from Plausible.

Robert Thompson, a racetrack habitue, was found dead yesterday morning lying half submerged in a pool of water near Emeryville track gates. Death was said to have been due to exposure.

W. G. Yanke has returned from Ascot Park with I'm Joe and Doc Craig. A portion of Barney Schreiber's Ascot Park string arrived at Oakland this morning.

LORD STANHOPE OUTSTAYS ZETHUS.

Exciting Finish Between These Two at Los Angeles-Track Is Rapidly Drying Out.

Los Angeles, Cal., January 18 .- The sky was clear and the track fast drying out at Ascot Park today. The attendance was the largest in ten days. The close and exciting finish between Lord Stanhope and Zethus in the third race, in which the former outstayed the latter, was productive of keen enthusiasm and was by far the best race of the Lord Stanhope has shown himself of the best three-year-olds here and will be difficult to beat in the future.

La Gloria simply smothered her opponents in the fifth race. Mandarin, which finished second, ran a good race and should give a good account of himself from now on. Kent was set down for three days by starter Dwyer for breaking up the start in the two-yearold race.

B. Dunn resumed his tilting today boosting La Gloria from $1,300 to $1,600, but the mare was retained by the owner.

"Big Bill" Knapp arrived today and will be seen in the saddle from now on.

R. Davis got in yesterday from San Francisco and had his first mount in the sixth race. He is under contract to E. J. Ramsey.

ABOUT THE TWO-YEAR-OLDS.

Lee Crest, by Goldcrest-Grace Lee, which won the first time out for Burlew & O'Neill at New Orleans, is a half brother to Coburg, Hilee, Glad Smile and Nostromo. He is an April foal and was bred by the late Major B. G. Thomas at Dixiana Stud. Burlew paid $325 for him July 5, last.

Bonheur, by Ingoldsby-Royal Una, was bred by C. W. Moore at the Mere Hill Stud. She is an April foal and was sold in July last to J. O. Keene for $400. She is a full sister to Cyuttica, Royal Legend and Ingleside.

Playful Boy, by Plaudit—Manzanita II., was bred by John E. Madden at Hamburg Place and was sold at Saratoga last August to James Blute for $200. He is a March foal and is a half brother to Conkling. His dam was a good race mare. She won sixteen some stakes among them.

Lackfoot, by Lackford-Shoes, was bred by Milton Young at McGrathiana Stud. He is a May foal. J. J. Walsh bought him for $300 last September. Shoes, young mare and is a half sister to Poor Boy. Little Barefoot, the second dam, was a stake Creation, by Altamax-Recreation, was bred by Burns & Waterhouse at the Candelaria Stud Farm in California. He is an April foal and was sold to J. G. Follansbee for $650 in July. He is a full brother to Rockaway and is a half brother to Recreo.

His dam won four stakes and eleven other races. St. Doreen, by St. Dory-The Heroine, was bred by S. C. Lyne at Larchmont Stud. She is an April foal and was sold to the Kirkfield Stable in June for $350. She is a full sister to Bravery, and a half sister to Halberdier and Decoration. Her dam was a winner.

All riders had waiting orders and the horses but little more than cantered for six furlongs, then Glorifier, suited by the slow pace, drew away and outpaced Orbicular in the sprint through the stretch. Orbicular did his best and hung on well, but had no chance at the weights. Phil Finch fell lame behind after running three furlongs.

Went to post at 4:57. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second driving; third the same contender and stood a long drive resolutely. J. Ed Grillo acted like a crazy horse at the post and was inclined to bear out all the way, but ran well and finished fast. Decklaw put up a good performance. Chieftain closed a gap and finished close up and the same applies to The Thrall. Wild Irishman ran fairly well. Auditor was pulled up at the start and not persevered with. The winner was entered to be sold for $900; no bid.

Winner—Br. c, by Sain—Sister Josephine (trained by C. E. Durnell).

Went to post at 3:04. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving; third the same.

Nealon broke slowly on the inside and was outpaced to the stretch, then made good with a great rush and far outclassed the others. Hector, from a flying start, held a long lead for three furlongs, but tired and swerved to the inside in the stretch, nearly putting Collector Jessup over the fence, then came on and secured second place, but was disqualified and placed third behind Collector Jessup. The latter, in close and consistent pursuit of the pacemaker, finished with a great rush on the inside and would have been an easy second and, possibly, a contender for the race but for the knocking about he received. Jocund broke so slowly that he was nearly left and trailed hopelessly in a rear position and was not fit, but look's superb, bodily. Fireball quit badly after going the first quarter.

Nealon, singly, place, 11 to 20; show, out. Fireball, singly, place 11 to 5; show, 1 to 4.

Winner—B. c, by St. Symphorien—Installatrix (trained by W. D. Randall).

Went to post at 3:55. At post 2 minutes. Start poor. Won driving; second and third the same.

St. Elmwood, away badly on the inside, closed up rapidly in the bad going and got up in the last stride of a hot stretch drive. Plausible set a tremendous pace throughout and only succumbed in the last stride after suffering from slight bumping. Blondy suffered severely from crowding at the start and dropped far back, but closed an immense gap and was going like a cyclone at the end and will beat this kind hereafter. Grace G. received an easy ride, but was prominent from the start. Grace St. Ciair was outclassed in the stiff going and had no chance. Seven Bells, away badly, held her own well.

Winner—Ch. f, by Balgowan—Mauch (trained by F. Whitlock).
Went to post at 1:48. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third the same. Katie Rains showed brilliant speed throughout and had plenty left to withstand Orena's challenge. The latter began somewhat slowly, but made up ground fast in the last eighth, finishing with a rush. Lackfoot ran well under punishment and finished resolutely. Gigana tired badly in the final eighth. Winner entered for $1,000; no bid.

the following, which traces back the origin of the present-day racehorse in England and likewise in America since the greatest number of thoroughbreds in this country today trace back to the English horses or horses that were brought into England from other countries:

"The date at which improvement in the breed of horses began to be systematically pursued in Great Britain, may, however, be written as the year 1616, when James I. gave 500 guineas for an Arabian, having been purchased from a Mr. Markham, a merchant trading with Arabia. A prejudice set in against the Arabian, as he was not successful as a racer; but this eventually disappeared; for in the next century, during the reign of Queen Anne, we find "The Darley Arabian," imported by a Mr. Darley from Aleppo. This horse was bred in the desert of Palmyra, and it is said that his progeny were unequalled for beauty, speed, and strength. The Darley Arabian is often termed the Father of the Turf, and, indeed, the history of the Turf may be said to begin from his time.

"Next we have the Godolphin. It is said, however, that this horse was wrongly described as an Arabian, and that he was really a Barb, imported from Barbary. He lived to be twenty-nine years old, and died 1753. Previous to the time when special care began to be taken in the selection of sire and dam, it was the custom to turn horses out to graze over the commons of England, and, it was made law (32 Henry VIII. c. 13), "That no person shall put on any forest, chase, moor, heath, common, or waste any stoned horse above the age of two years not being fifteen hands high; thus showing that height was thought an essential requisite for sires in those days. During the last 200 years the pursuit of horse racing has been more attractive to the leading families of England han any other outdoor pastime. Horse racing as a public sport may be said to have commenced in the reign of James I., the races then run being purely for amusement; but ## is recorded that so early as the time of Henry II. races were run follows:—Five years old, 10st; six years old, 11st; seven years old and aged, 12st.

"It is impossible to obtain but few of the performances of the horses during the earlier part of the eighteenth century. The published records date from 1718, and the races were generally matches, and in long courses, varying four to twelve miles in length. In the year just mentioned twenty-three matches were decided on Newmarket Heath, in all but one of which the distance was four miles. In 1719 the Duke of Wharton made two matches of six miles each, and in the same year a 'Royal Cup,' value 160 guineas, was given by George I. for five-year-old mares, 10st each, distance four miles, which was won by the Duke of Rutland's Bonny Black, by Black Hearty, son of Byerly Turk. In this race twenty-one started, and no less than sixteen were placed by the judge. In the next year the 'Royal Cup' was again given; eighteen started, and Bonny Black again won.

"In 1720, twenty-six matches were run, and in the month of October in that year the Duke of Wharton's Caneyskins, 11st 10lb, beat Lord Hillsborough's Speedwell, 12st, the best of three heats, twelve miles, for 1,000 guineas, thus showing that racing in those days was more for endurance and staying powers than for speed. For a few years only about that time are there any records of the racing that took place, and not until the latter part of the last century do we find any regular record kept. In those early days of racing 'Give and Take Plates' were both common and popular, with conditions as follows: The horses entered carried weight for age and weight for inches, each horse being measured under a standard before starting. Aged horses and mares, thirteen hands high, carried 7st, and for every additional one-eighth of an inch, fourteen ounces extra. Six year-olds carried four pounds, and five-year-olds twelve pounds less; thus, if a horse stood fourteen hands high he carried 9st, fifteen hands 11st, and so on in the same proportion. The following is a correct return of a Give and Take
